HAPPY ART
HAPPY KIDS

March 2020

Happy March!

Hello friends!

I know you're grateful for the opportunity to teach art, inspire students and create art each day. BUT, you wish your days were a little less chaotic and a little more zen.

I totally get it.

That's why my goal here at Deep Space Sparkle is to offer you not just project ideas, but technique tips and the support you need to teach without stress.

This month's projects are designed to celebrate Mother Earth by offering projects that use recycled material (Hello Lion!), consider endangered animals (check out our coloring page with coloring technique video) and to enjoy the creative process of creating a flower arrangement from your paper scrap box.

Make sure to download the CALENDAR to see when the video tutorial and blog post launch so you can create the projects with your kiddos.

Are you a Sparkler? If so, you get the FULL version of all of these lessons inside the membership!

This Packet contains ALL the handouts you need for all of our Brand New March projects in one easy download.

JEFF KOONS BALLOON DOG TEMPLATE

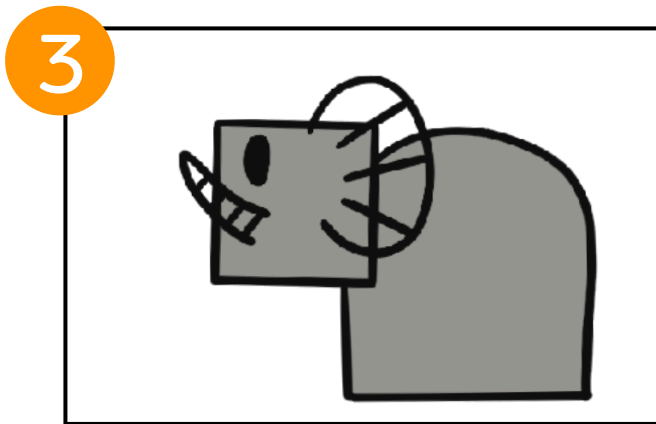

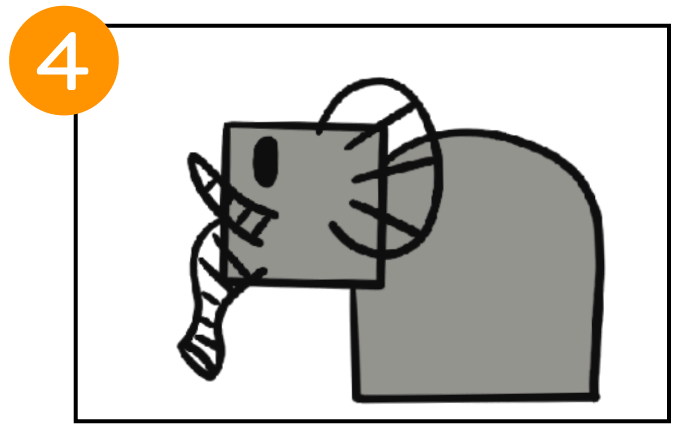

1 Start with your head and body shapes glued on the paper.

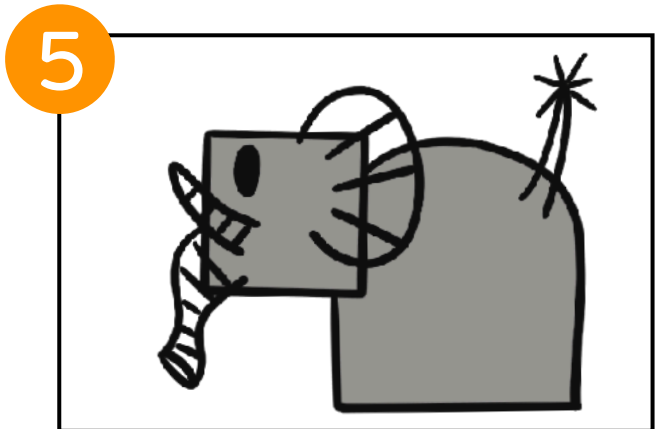

2 Draw a large, backward "C" shape around the top right corner of the head for the ear. Add a few lines inside the ear.

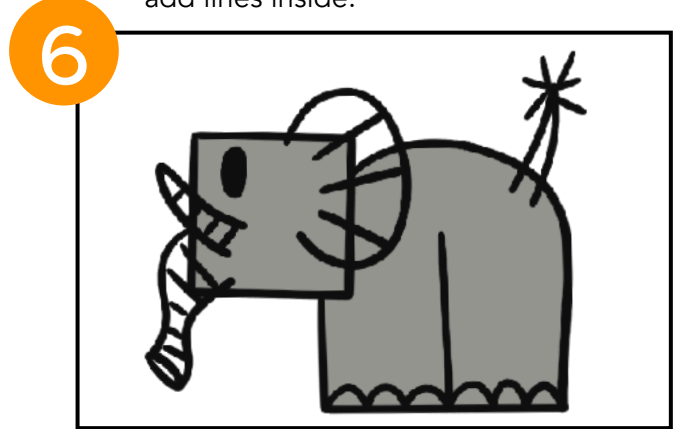

3 Add an oval for the eye in the top left corner, then add a triangular tusk near the middle of the head, extending outside.

4 For the trunk, draw a curved line toward the bottom of the paper. Draw an oval at the bottom. Connect back up to the head and add lines inside.

5 Draw a triangular tail from the top right corner of the body. Add a few lines at the end of the tail.

6 Add a line in the center of the body to separate the legs. Add a few bumpy lines for toes at the bottom of the body.

SPARKLERS

MEMBERS' CLUB

Join thousands of others in this one-of-a-kind membership just for those who teach art!

The Sparklers' Club is an affordable and flexible “pay as you go” monthly membership — perfect for anyone who teaches art to students aged K-6. Get kid-tested (and teacher-approved) step-by-step lesson plans, done-for-you curriculums, and practical support — so you can unleash your students' creativity in the classroom and become an Art Teacher Superstar. (Even if you couldn't draw a stick figure to save your life.)

- Spend more time creating with your students, instead of planning in isolation week after week.
- Enjoy the confidence of knowing exactly how to engage your class with art lessons that are rigorous, inspiring and fun.
- Win back your free time, get the support you need and reignite your passion and energy for your work.

“Last March, I went in for my first art teacher interview, & they unexpectedly asked if I could teach 5-7 year olds. I smiled and said yes because I had The Sparklers' Club magic in my back pocket! Being a member gave me the confidence I needed in a low part of my life. I joined for the lessons and the teaching, but I had no idea I would find a family here as well.”

Laura

“Before I joined The Sparklers' Club, teaching art was so lonely! After so many years of teaching, I felt like my lessons were getting stale and I had no support. But then I became a Sparkler! Being a part of this group, sharing ideas, having the amazing lessons, and this whole community has given me a brand new sense of joy and enthusiasm that I had when I first started teaching”
